Re: Ricks Township Polling Place Relocation for the General Primary Election of March 17, 2020

The impact of the COVID-19 virus has resulted in a large number of election judges throughout Christian County contacting my office and removing themselves from participation during Election Day.

Unfortunately, the polling place for Ricks Township, located at the Morrisonville-Palmer Firehouse, had all available judges request removal from consideration. As a result, I have requested relief through the circuit court to allow the voters of Ricks Township to vote at the Christian County Courthouse on Election Day. The hours remain the same as other polling places – 6am to 7pm.

The executed order will be available sometime on Tuesday, March 17.

Old polling place:

Morrisonville-Palmer Firehouse
206 SE Sixth St.
Morrisonville, IL 62546

New polling place:

Christian County Courthouse
101 S. Main
Taylorville, IL 62568

If you have any questions, please email elections@christiancountyil.com or call the office at 217-824-4969.

Respectfully,

Michael C. Gianasi
Christian County Clerk & Recorder
